[DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.]

DATES TO DECEMBER 5,

Synopsis of the Message.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 5.—The President's Message to Congress to-day says that the resistance to the General Government having exhausted itself, the first question was, whether the territories within the limits of the States which attempted to secede should be held as conquered territories under military authority emanating from the President. But he considers that the military government established for an indefinite period, would have offered no security for the suppression of discontent, would have divided the people into vanquishers and vanquished, and envenomed their hatred rather than restored their affection. The new theory is that all pretended acts of secession were from the beginning null and void. States cannot commit treason in the individual citizen who may have committed treason in the attempt to secede and place their status in a condition where their functions were suspended, but not destroyed. But if any State refuses to perform its office, there is more necessity that the General Government should maintain its authority, and as soon as practicable, resume and exercise all its functions. On this principle, had he acted and gradually and quietly, by almost imperceptible steps sought to restore the rightful authority of the General Government and of States. To that end, provisional Governors were appointed. All parts engaged in the late terrible conflict must work in harmony, was not too much to ask, that on the one side the plan of restoration shall proceed in conformity with a willingness to cast the discords of the past into oblivion, and that on the other hand the evidence of security in the future maintenance of the Union shall be put beyond any doubt by the ratification of the proposed anti-slavery amendment to the Constitution. This amendment being adopted, it would remain for the States to resume their places in two branches of Congress, and thereby complete the work of restoration. The President gives he has no authority to make freedmen electors; that remains with the States. They can decide whether it is to be adopted at once or introduced gradually with conditions. Good faith, however, requires the security of the freedmen in their liberty and property, the right to labor and reap the first return of their labor. The President says that it will be his constant aim to promote peace and amity with all foreign nations. He thinks all of them are actuated by the same disposition. The accordance of belligerent rights to the insurgent States was an unjustifiable act. Great Britain cannot be justified. She built ships, furnished men and material of war to the insurgents. Justification for this cannot be said to be before the tribunal of the world. At the same time he does not advise at present an attempt at redress by acts of legislation. The future friendship between the two countries must rest on a basis of mutual justice. We have wisely forebone as became the propagandists of Republicanism, but it would be a cause of great calamity to them and breach of good government should any foreign power challenge the American people to its defense against foreign interference. He relies on the wisdom and justice of those powers to respect the system of non-interference which has so long been sanctioned by time.

NEW YORK, Dec. 5.—The report of the Secretary of the Navy suggests a thorough survey of the Islands on the Pacific coast and the enlargement of the Navy Yard at Mare Island, San Francisco. The number of blockade runners and other vessels captured during the war is 265. The Secretary intimates that the expense of the navy to the end of June 1866, will be nearly $24,000,000.

FRANKFORT, (Ky.), Dec. 5.—The Legislature met yesterday, and organized by the election of Harrison Taylor, Speaker of the House, and J. R. Thomas, Clerk.

Additional Eastern News.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 2.—About fifty Alabamians have been pardoned by special order of the President. All belong to the $20,000 clause.

The Navy department to-day received a dispatch from St. Thomas announcing the arrival at that port of the fleet on its way to the Pacific coast. The iron-clad Monadnock behaved splendidly in the roughest weather, displaying sailing qualities superior to the other vessels of the squadron.

A large number of newly arrived Congressmen are at the White House, for the purpose of paying their respects to the President.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 30.—General Grant and staff left here at noon to-day for Charleston.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 2.—The Democratic members of Congress to the number of twenty-five or thirty hold a caucus to-night, M. R. Winfield presiding. They had an interchange of views and decided to hold an adjourned meeting on Monday morning at 10 o'clock, to nominate officers for the opposition.

NEW YORK, December 2.—The Post's special says it is expected that the nominations for all prominent officers in the House will be made in the Union Caucus to-night. A number of military men are candidates.

The Navy report recommends appropriations to establish naval squadrons.

The Commercial's Washington special says the President is greatly encouraged by the news from North Carolina, which he regards as evidence of the ultimate successful working of his policy.

The exception of the Southern States in the habeas corpus proclamation is regarded as evidence that the President does not regard the South as sufficiently pacified to allow any complications on the Rio Grande.

The Post states that the loss by fire at the corner of Bridge and State streets this morning will amount to $700,000.

BOSTON, December 2d.—The colored people of New England at their convention yesterday selected George T. Downing, of Rhode Island, to represent the interests of their race at Washington during the ensuing session of Congress.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 2.—The Union representatives to the number of 124, met in caucus to-night in the Hall of the House of Representatives. No members were present from the late insurrectionary States. A committee of seven was appointed, consisting of Stevens of Pennsylvania, Raymond of New York, Spalding of Ohio, Washburne of Illinois, Paine of Wisconsin, Boutwell of Massachusetts and Delano of Maine, who reported the following resolutions:

Resolved, By the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States in Congress assembled, that a joint committee of fifteen members shall be appointed, nine to be members of the House and six of the Senate, who shall inquire into the condition of the States which formed the so-called Confederate States of America and report whether they or any of them are entitled to be represented in either house of Congress, with leave to report at any time by bill. Until such report shall have been made and acted on by Congress, no member shall be admitted in either house from the so-called Confederate States. Papers relating to said States shall be referred to said committee without debate.

The resolution was adopted unanimously and will be offered in the House of Representatives by Thaddeus Stevens, Chairman of the special committee who reported it. Schuyler Colfax was nominated for Speaker, [illegible] McPherson for Clerk, [illegible] for Sergeant-at-Arms. Ordway was also nominated unanimously. Col. [illegible] was selected to act [illegible] Postmaster [illegible] the present incumbent, King. With the exception of all officers of the former House have been nominated. As soon as the nominations were completed the meeting adjourned.

ST. LOUIS, Dec. 2.—The commission appointed by the President to view the second section of the Union Pacific Railroad from Lawrence [illegible] reported to-day. The report is favorable. The agent of the Butterfield express denies the killing of the passengers for Denver City on the Smoky Hill route, and says the men killed were employees and express messenger. Only one passenger was on the stage, and he was unharmed. The Indian leader is a half breed son of Col. Bent, who pretended to be friendly and took the whites at a disadvantage.

Gov. [illegible] of Georgia has organized a military company in [illegible] county of the State to preserve order. Rev. R. [J.] Breckenridge, D. D., has declined to accept the Presidency of Washington and Jefferson College, Penn., to which he was elected last summer.

The Virginia Legislature met on Monday, December 4th. It is a curious fact that in the House of Delegates, consisting of ninety-six members, with a single exception—that of the Delegate from Rockbridge county—every member is an old line Whig, while in the Senate the exceptions are but three or four, the remainder being all of like party antecedents.

BOSTON, December 2d.—Reliable returns from the treasurer's office of Massachusetts shows that the bounties paid to enlisted men by the cities and towns of the Commonwealth amount to not less than $23,689,293. The bounties paid by the State Treasury amount to upwards of $13,000,000. The State aid furnished to the families of Volunteers including the amount to be reimbursed to cities and towns for the current year is $36,000,000. For coast defences including grants by the last Legislature, $618,000. The interest on the War Loans is upwards of $1,500,000. All other expenses on the war account amount to nearly $150,000. From this statement it appears that Massachusetts has actually paid upwards of fifty millions of dollars on account of the war.

NASHVILLE, December 2.—The murderers of Hefferman are sentenced to death and will be executed as soon as the approval of General Thomas, who at last accounts was at Mobile, can be obtained. One of the parties arrested turned States evidence, and informed against the whole gang of outlaws, numbering twenty or more.

NEW YORK, December 2.—The Herald has a budget of items from El Paso, probably received in columns ere this, confirming the evacuation of Chihuahua by the French, and announcing the return of the State authorities, and an invitation to Juarez to repair thither. Also, stories of the arrival of French deserters, and suggesting troubles for the French in reaching Durango.

CHICAGO, December 2.—The Jackson (Miss.) Clarion of Nov. 25th, says all military posts north of Grenada have been discontinued, and ten regiments are under marching orders to leave this department. Their destination is Vicksburg. This movement indicates that the negro troops will be gradually withdrawn from our State. We suspect this movement is an experiment, and that the condition of affairs in the neighborhood from which the troops have been withdrawn will be watched with a vigilant eye by the military authorities.

General Lee writes to a gentleman in New York city in reference to a recent rumor that he requested permission from the Government to retain certain pieces of artillery at Lexington for his students. He has nothing to do with the military institute. He did not know there were any guns here, and has no use for any guns, and never made an application for them.

CHICAGO, Dec. 3.—The big oil swindle case at Pit Hole, Pennsylvania, came to grief. The title given to Marie farm has been annulled by the United States Circuit Court on the ground of fraud and the property restored to its original owner, Copeland. It is worth $500,000.

Washington dispatches contain the following:

Stewart, of Virginia, Congressman elect, who threatened trouble in the event of a refusal of his application, says he will abide by the decision of the House.

The Western pressure has commenced to secure a large share of committee appointments to western Unionists.

The Comptroller of currency recommends the removal of his bureau to New York.

The internal revenue receipts on Saturday were nearly $3,000,000.

Chauncy M. Depew, appointed Minister to Japan, is pressed for appointment as Collector of New York.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 3.—There is semi-official information from Mexico that Maximillian's Finance Minister reports a deficiency of $25,000,000 in the Treasury.

The French are concentrating at San Luis Potosi and on the Rio Grande. The report of the evacuation of several States is confirmed.

The rebel Secretary Mallory is pardoned on condition of giving information concerning the rebel naval archives, which are supposed to have been burned.

The rebel prison keepers Winder, McGee and Duncan are to be tried respectively in Richmond, Raleigh and Savannah by Military Courts, for cruelties to prisoners.

Reports from the Canadian border indicate the success of efforts to suppress smuggling. The majority of Virginians lately here have gone home.

NEW YORK, Dec. 3.—Paris advices represent the opposition members of the Corps Legislatif as gaining ground against Napoleon's support of Maximilian.

A reform movement to discard extravagance in dress is announced. It receives support from distinguished Court ladies.

The Russian Council has ratified Sibley's contracts concerning Russian American and Asiatic Telegraph.

Slidell's Secretary, Eustis and Mason and Hughes apply for pardon. Slidell declares he never will.

Paris physicians report the disappearance of the cholera. Advices from Ecuador brings a decision in the case of the steamer Washington, engaged in the last revolutionary movement against the Government of Peru. The Supreme Court of the Republic, at Quito, has declared her a prize. She had been previously claimed by the United States Minister as the property of citizens of the United States.

CHICAGO, Dec. 4.—Sterling Price is an applicant for pardon. Two cases of cholera are reported in the rebel ram Stonewall. The vessel has been quarantined and will be fumigated.

A doubtful story is current that General Logan has been authorized to negotiate with Juarez for the session of the Northern States of Mexico to the United States, in consideration of which the United States shall pay ten millions to Mexico for internal improvements. It is added that the President's Message takes strong grounds in favor of the Monroe doctrine.

CHICAGO, Dec. 4.—The Washington specials contain the following: Several Tennessee members called on the President yesterday, and reported that he expressed hopes that they and all Southern members who can take the oath of allegiance, may be admitted to their seats in Congress.

Speculations still continue as to the message. Conservative Senators claim to have seen it, and are jubilant. They say besides its sentiments on reconstruction, the message represents our foreign relations as quite satisfactory.

McCulloch's report contains a request for authority to convert 7 30's before maturity into gold interest bonds.

The rebel Quantrel is in Washington applying for pardon. Kansas men have demanded his arrest.

Carl Schurz is in New York.

The Tribune's Washington correspondent says Sumner arrived yesterday and had a two hours interview with the President.

Foreign.

NEW YORK, Dec. 5.—The steamship City of New York arrived from Liverpool with dates via Queenstown to 23d. Pirate Shenandoah sailed on the 21st, for New York.

The Bank of England has reduced the rate of discount to six per cent. The merchants of Paris and Havre have addressed the Emperor on Spanish Chilian affairs.

Violent gales have occurred in England and great damage done to shipping.

The time allowed for the completion of the telegraph to America via Greenland in contract is three years, not two, as reported.

The number of Fenians admitted to bail is regarded as an indication that only the chief ones will be prosecuted. Explanations not published.

There has been a reduction in the French army of ten thousand three hundred and ninety six men.

NEW YORK, Dec. 5.—Most of the rebel chiefs in Hayti have been shot. Geffrard is now master of the situation.

The cholera at Guadaloupe and Martinique is so fatal that all vessels from there are refused.

Senate Committees.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 5.—The Senate Committees are substantially the same as at the extra session of last March. Morgan is transferred to Finance from Military Affairs. Dixon is Chairman of the Postal Committee vice Collamer.

The Virginia Legislature repealed act allowing the transfer of Berkley and Jefferson counties to West Virginia.

New York City Election.

NEW YORK, Dec. 5.—The City election to-day was quiet. The full vote as follows: John T. Hoffman, Tammany Democrat, thirty two thousand five hundred and fifty five; Marshall O. Roberts, Republican, thirty one thousand four hundred and twenty one; John Hecker, Greely and Mozart, ten thousand four hundred; Gunter, six thousand six hundred and sixty-one.

OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE STATE

SATURDAY MORNING DEC 9, 1865

The Amendment in the Senate

The proceedings in the Senate on Wednesday, as reported for this paper and published to day give a quite full account of the debate which took place upon the ratification of the Constitutional Amendment Probably the most remarkable feature of the debate is found in the novel arguments of one of the gentlemen who opposed the amendment We venture to assert that the position he took, with the deduction therefrom formes a course of reasoning for which a parallel cannot be found "No mention of slavery is made in the Constitution, hence this measure is not an amendment of, but an addition to that instrument" Here the original Abolition doctrine is presented as a premise, while a conclusion is drawn from it which would do credit to the ratiocinative powers of the most polemic of our "conservatives" Garrett Davis himself could not do better than that The defect in the argument is, first, the Constitution does recognize the existence of slavery, and second as a consequence, the measure proposed is not an addition to the instrument but an amendment of it

It is true that men acting from honest motives may differ from each other Though we might be willing to concede all passible good intentions to those who oppose the Amendment, we should beg to be preserved forever from a fame like to that which the future will attach to their names It is given to but few men to perform so great a part in the advancement of human liberty, and hence when the opportunity occurs to enroll one's name among the benefactors of mankind the greater the inexcusableness—say rather the criminality—of letting the occasion go by unimproved, or even worse of trying to hinder the final consummation of freedom

"Union Democrats."

The Statesman seems to think the strongest point it has, is to misrepresent us by saying that we are not willing to allow that men who were once "Democrats" can now be good and reliable members of the Union party We have always said that the party has no better friends—no stronger supporters—than are found in the thousands of true men who abandoned the "Democracy" four or five years ago and joined their equally, but not more patriotic, countrymen, in the effort to save the Government. We complain not of the fidelity of such men as these There is a class of "Democrats" however, who seem to be held in special estimation by the Statesman but whom the Union party have no use for These gentlemen are those "Democratic" pinks of consistency and patriotism who, at the time the Union party was formed, made themselves remarkably conspicuous as members of that organization—men whose loyalty was so extreme as to be painful to witness, and whose patriotic armor blazed with an effulgence sufficient to quite overpower their less zealous associates—but who after a little time, finding they could not get office or patronage, discovered that the principles of the Union party were "unconstitutional" and so left the organization, and began to abuse and vilify it for the course it had taken. Of this style of "Union Democrats," Oregon possesses quite a number. There is Hayden, who when he couldn't get a nomination wanted another party, as the Statesman now does; Thayer, who couldn't go to Congress, and so couldn't be a Union man, Newell, who wasn't named for Presidential elector, and hence found at once that Lincoln was no better than McClellan; Bush, who failed to get a seat in the United States Senate, and so relapsed into Copperheadism, Harding who couldn't go back as Senator and on this account "preferred to see Vallandigham elected rather than an Abolitionist;" Humason, who didn't get a seat in Congress and so quit the Union party and started in search of some organization which might have a higher appreciation of his talents, Nesmith who wanted McClellan elected because he "would surround him with honest men," Elkins, who didn't get the spoils he expected and so went back to the "Democracy" This catalogue of worthies might be continued, but, for the present, the above will suffice Those persons are of that style of "Democrats" who don't suit us The Statesman is wonderfully pleased with some or all of them, since they are exactly of that kind who are fit to be counted in its "new conservative party." But for ourselves, and in behalf of true Union men, we beg to be excused from giving the control of the Union party into the hands of the class whom the Statesman is so anxious to include in the "new national organization"

"Nesmith never has been a member of the Union party."—Oregonian

"Your statement is a falsehood"—Statesman

"Regarding Gen. McClellan as an honest man and a patriot I should prefer to see him elected I think he would be surrounded by more capable and honest advisers than those to whom Mr Lincoln looks for support and advice. The Administration of McClellan would be more in accordance with my views than Mr Lincoln's has been It is a [illegible] that a country so abounding in resources should have its men and means wasted by maladministration as ours have been The futility of prosecuting the war for the purpose of abolishing slavery is becoming more apparent every day and many friends of the Administration are willing to give up the contest in despair I desire the election of McClellan because I believe his influence will be more potent for peace or war than that of his competitor"—Nesmith's Milwaukie Letter

Now, let us see if the Statesman will tell us again that Nesmith, its candidate for the Senate, is a member of the Union party It is very easy for the editor of that paper to retort with, "You're a fool and a liar!" but somewhat more difficult for him "to report political intelligence" correctly Nesmith no doubt, is a leading member of the Statesman's "new national organization," Union men can decide after reading the above extracts from his letter, whether he is a member of their party. Hadn't the Statesman better repeat its favorite and convincing "argument," "You tell a base falsehood?" Do give us some further information about the political character of the man whom you style a 'faithful public servant' Do know your plaudits of the politician who showed his excellent judgement and his remarkable ideas of rectitude by saying that McClellan was a "man of more ability and honesty than Abraham Lincoln"

NO WONDER—The editor of the Oregon Reporter (Copperhead) says: "It surpasses our perspicuity to discover any reason for the special session." We should think so The writer of such English as that can scarcely be expected to render a reason for anything except that he is a 'Democrat' because his instincts won't permit him to be anything else

John C Breckinridge is at Toronto, Canada West He announces his determination of settling there permanently and engaging in the pork packing business If he ever comes over the line he can't save his bacon

A dispatch announces that Rufus Leighton has been appointed Collector of Customs at Port Angeles W T in place of Mr Wilson, who recently succeeded Dr Gunn

SUSPENDED—The Umatilla Advertiser has suspended publication for the present It will be issued again "as soon as business opens in the spring"

The California Legislature is now in session Both Houses were fully organized on Tuesday All the officers elected are Unionists

Mr Frazer introduced a bill providing for the election of a Superintendent of Public Instruction and for raising a fund for the support of common schools

THE CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT

The hour having arrived for the special consideration of Mr Pyle's resolution ratifying the Constitutional Amendment abolishing slavery

Mr Chrisman said he had marked out a track on this question after the wisest men in the nation and that was there is no power to interfere with slavery The Constitution had nothing to do with slavery, and in consequence, we cannot meddle it. If we do so we will maintain the right of the South in rebelling for they hold that the Constitution did recognize slavery, and in consequence it ought to be protected He believed the effects of this amendment would be the destruction of this Government The slavery question is a sectional one and if the amendment is passed we act as a sectional party We will thus take away thousands of dollars worth of property from loyal men If he could be convinced that his opinions were wrong he would willingly vote for it He has been threatened with the name of Copperhead for not being willing to vote for this measure If that should make him a Copperhead he was willing to be called one, and to be thus classed with the fathers of his country He was proud to be in their company

Mr Pyle believed the present condition of the country demanded that we abolish slavery We have the power Constitutions were made for the benefit of the people and hence could be changed for their good if they desired it Constitutions are unmovable and do not change themselves and would be of no use to the people unless they could be changed and improved to meet the wants of the people There is no question as to the power to amend the Constitution, but some differ as to the necessity of a change Slavery, if not the cause, was the pretext of the rebellion It was to preserve slavery, to render it universal over the United States and to take their slaves into every State and Territory and to be protected in that property that the slaveholders labored so long It was many millions of dollars and lives it has cost the United States to crush the rebellion and are we now going to perpetuate slavery? Before the war the people were willing to protect slavery in the South, but when the first gun was fired at Sumter, it became the determination of the people to abolish it, Now the South wants to come back into the Union Should we not then remove the cause of the rebellion and thus prevent its recurrence lest they should contend slavery is not abolished, and make it the pretext for another attempt to destroy the Union? If slavery is not abolished—totally eradicated—what has then been accomplished by the war? Let us eradicate it and thus forever remove the cause of a future rebellion It only exists now nominally it is virtually dead—the South admits it All that is necessary to make the victory complete is to drive the last nail in the coffin of slavery

Mr Chrisman in reply, said he had no doubt slavery was dead but wished the people of the South to regulate their slaves themselves They would abolish the institution He holds that slavery is not property under the Constitution of the United States He does not want to tamper with the Constitution If we commence he was afraid there would be no end to it till it was destroyed entirely Take away the Constitution and we have no Government it would be destroyed by constitutional amendment He believes if the amendment is adopted that the negro would then be a regular citizen of the United States He could then run for Congress than what kind of a Government would we have? A speckled one! part black, part yellow, and part white He believed this Government to be a white man's Government

Mr Grim thought it was a momentous question, thought the Government always acted in good faith toward the South, extended the slave trade for twenty years, gave them a fugitive slave law, the Missouri compromise, etc Grant, Sherman and others destroyed the secession building, and now it is necessary to destroy its corner stone, slavery Mr Lincoln asked the Border States to come up and be paid for their slaves before it was too late but they would not listen to him now it is too late for them to ask for pay He is proud to record his name as one who voted to abolish slavery

Mr Curl said he believed the people can only amend the Constitution in respect to the powers delegated to the General Government but not in regard to the rights reserved to the States The people could abolish the Constitution, change the government, but every State would have to vote on the question He rejoiced that the rebellion had been crushed, for we had gained law and order instead, and his ardent wish was, that we would all be brothers again but he could not vote for this amendment, for he had no right to rob the people of the South of their property In view of his oath as Senator, he would have to vote against it

Mr Donnell hoped, at first that there would be no Senator to vote against the amendment Our action to day goes into the history of the nation and of the world There never has been in this Senate so momentous a question and he was proud to be able to record his vote in its favor

We to day are making a record to be handed down to our children and to our children's children forever It is not now necessary to argue as to the right or wrong of the institution of slavery All have seen or can see the baneful results of its operation It is said that there is joy in heaven when one sinner repents but O when a nation repents of its sins what joy there must be! That we have oppressed this people we cannot deny—no one can reasonably deny it In this we have committed a sin for which we cannot too soon repent

Mr President I consider this the greatest question that has ever come before the people of the United States The verdict of the nation has already been made up and methinks when the requisite number of the States have voted upon this question to adopt the Constitutional Amendment in heaven the glad shout will be raised Alleluiah Alleluiah is the land forever! [Applause in the gallery] And I would say to any gentleman upon this floor who expects to vote upon this question to day think well O think well Since this question has come up for our action I have felt that it is a great privilege the greatest privilege of my life to be here to cast my vote in favor of so great a cause and in so doing, I feel that I make a record for my posterity which they will be proud to recall and I would beseech the members of this House to remember that they now have an opportunity to take a stand for which future generations may rise up and call them blessed [Applause]

Mr Frazer—The resolution now before the House involves a question that has elicited more discussion both oral and written than any other and when I reflect that the most gigantic minds of the nation yea of the world have taken part in the discussion in the halls of legislation I confess I feel my impotency in entering upon the field of discussion Had the Senators been willing to vote upon this question without comment I would cheerfully have omitted to do so but since the debate upon the subject has been somewhat general for fear that silence might be construed into [illegible] I beg to state some of the reasons that prompt me to vote as I do

I was born and reared in a slave State and I have seen and learned to talk with one and I know something of the workings of American slavery I have seen him [illegible] being called human I have seen the traffic in flesh and blood carried on in various forms I have seen the helpless slave sometimes with more white blood than black coursing his veins placed upon the block and struck off to the highest bidder I have seen him toiling under the lash of the overseer to put money in the pockets of another I have seen the mother separated from her yet tender infant with none to pity—no sympathizing hand to brush away the tear as it trickled down her bronzy cheek Yes sir I have seen this in the State of Kentucky which now clings to the accursed institution with a tenacity beyond my comprehension I have watched the career of that State from the commencement of this rebellion and I have wished that old Henry Clay might arise from his hallowed grave and electrify his old home with the generous sentiments that animated him while living. Probably his voice uttered now as in days of yore, against the encroaching spirit of slavery would impress upon others as he has most vividly upon me, the magnitude of this great wrong.

I fled my native State not for crime No Sir But because I did not like her blighting baneful institution of slavery To get away from it I came to this far off West and helped to rear this noble State, I gave my vote to make it a free State I understood the Republican platform and have long hoped to see its glorious principles nationalized I did not expect to have the privilege of casting my vote upon this great measure, but shall esteem it one of the proudest acts of my life

I argue that this amendment cannot be passed because it is an addition to the Constitution, is to oppose one of the best established precedents on record There is no particular manner prescribed by which the Constitution may be amended It has been amended heretofore, and it may be amended now I want to see it done as soon as possible This is a great country It has been made glorious by the heroic deeds of statesmen and soldiers Our fathers taught us that all men were born equal We have boasted that ours is a free country Foreigners coming among us even from the monarchies of the old world, have to hold this system of human bondage and pronounced it greater, blacker than anything existing in the lands where despotism is said to make its home Shall such always be so? Let the voice of a united people just snatched from destruction in the jaws of this fearful monster answer No! Let our beautiful flag henceforth float as the starry emblem of the free

I too was once opposed to interfering with slavery in the States where it existed because I could not see how it could lawfully be done There was then no hope for the success of such a proposition as this But the nation has grown wiser by a bitter and mournful experience Shall we not profit by the bloody strife through which we have passed? Our heroic soldiers have done their part of the work most nobly, let us complete it [Applause]

The vote upon the resolution was then taken, with the following result

Yeas—Messrs Cornelius, Cranston, Donnell, Frazer Greenwood, Grim, Hinsdale Hovey, Palmer Pyle, Wagner, Watson and Mr President—13

Nays Caldwell Chrisman and Curl—3

When the name of Mr President was called, he said As I have taken no part in the debate on this question I will here state that I am most unqualifiedly in favor of this resolution and casting my vote for the resolution I consider it one of the proudest acts of my life I vote aye [Applause]

The resolution was declared adopted and on motion the Senate adjourned to two o'clock

AFTERNOON

The House joint resolution to accept the five hundred copies of the Governor's Message from the State Printer was concurred in

Mr Hovey offered a joint resolution for the adjournment of the Legislature over Thanksgiving Day, which was passed

Mr Wagner introduced a bill to change the boundaries of Jackson county so as to include the Klamath lake country, now in Wasco county

Mr Frazer presented a petition from the Trustees of the Monmouth University to change the name of that institution to Christian College, etc Referred to the Committee on education

Mr Palmer introduced a bill to repeal section 4 of an act to organize the militia—doing away with the two dollar tax

Mr Pyle introduced a bill for the relief of Messrs Fisher & Street, for certain school lands in Baker county

Mr, Palmer introduced a joint resolution to adjourn the Legislature on next Saturday evening Laid on the table until Friday morning

Mr Pyle introduced a bill to amend an act to provide for the sale of school lands and the management of the common school fund The amendment will prevent persons who have borne arms against the Government from purchasing school lands

Mr Pyle offered a resolution to procure copies of the civil code of 1862 for the use of the members, which was passed

Mr Hovey submitted a resolution to supply each member of the Senate with newspapers during the session, adopted

Mr Pyle introduced "A bill to amend an act entitled an act to provide a code of civil procedure, to define crimes and to provide for their punishment" The amendment exempts drug stores, doctor's shops and other necessary places from fines for being open on Sundays Read first time, rules suspended, read second time by title and referred to the committee on judiciary.

A resolution to attend Thanksgiving services at the Methodist Church after discussion, was withdrawn

Adjourned till Friday morning.

HOUSE

Rev W F Boyakin, of the Baptist Church, opened with prayer

PETITIONS

Mr Lane presented a petition from the citizens of Umatilla City, signed by Thomas R Wilson and seventy others, praying that their city charter be repealed The petition was referred to a select committee of three, consisting of Lane, Underwood and Wasserman.

PROPOSITIONS AND MOTIONS

Mr Lane gave notice of his intention to introduce on to morrow or some subsequent day a bill to amend the code relating to the assessment and collection of taxes, and also in reference to civil procedure

Mr Underwood offered H J R No 3, ratifying the amendment to the Constitution of the United States abolishing slavery, similar to that submitted to the Senate yesterday by Mr Pyle He moved that the resolution be made the special order for two o'clock this afternoon. Agreed to

Mr Quick presented a resolution requesting the Speaker to fill the places at present occupied on the various committees by Messrs. Ireland, Hacker and Songer—who will probably remain absent during the present session—with members who are in attendance Adopted

Mr Cox submitted a resolution requesting the State Treasurer to furnish the House with a detailed statement of the condition of the military fund showing the amount paid in and the amount disbursed to whom and for what service rendered the State with copies of the respective vouchers on file in his office since the 10th of October, 1864 as provided for in an act entitled "An act for the organization of the Militia," dated April 16th, 1862 The resolution was adopted

Mr Underwood gave notice that he would introduce a bill on a subsequent day for the repeal of the militia law

On motion two hundred copies of the rules of the House were ordered printed for the use of the members

Mr Thornton introduced a joint resolution directing that 1,500 copies of the Governor's Message and the accompanying documents, be ordered printed for the use of the members of the Legislature After some discussion the resolution was rejected

Mr Lawson submitted a series of joint resolutions pertaining to the state of the nation, designed to be expressive of the sense of the people of the State upon general subjects They were referred to a select committee of five, consisting of Underwood, Lawson, Murphy Quick and Tate

That part of the Governor's Message relating to a Registry law was referred to the committee on Judiciary with instructions to report a bill

Other portions of the Message were referred to the proper committee

Mr Cox gave notice that at some future time he would introduce a bill to repeal the code of civil procedure

Mr Underwood gave notice that he would introduce a bill for the relief of Geo. W. Garrison, Stephen Rigdon and John Fullerton

THE CONTESTED SEAT.

The committee on credentials reported that, from the abstract of votes furnished from Wasco and Grant counties although the returns were somewhat informal, yet it appeared that H A Hogue had received thirty nine majority over N H Gates in the 14th representative district, but, as there were some points of law involved in the contest it was recommended that both the gentlemen be invited to seats within the bar of the House that each be heard in his own behalf, and that their claims be decided upon by the House

Messrs Gates and Hogue took seats within the bar

Mr Underwood offered a resolution declaring Mr. Hogue a member of the House

Mr Gates made a statement at length of the grounds upon which he claimed a right to the seat The election was called by the Governor to fill a vacancy created by the resignation of the representative from Wasco county, and any vote that may have been cast by Grant county as a county was informal and invalid, the abstract of votes was not required by the county clerk as required by law but by the clerk of the Board of Commissioners an officer unknown to our laws The returns were made the Secretary of State, who has no right to require such returns The certificate of election should come from the clerk of the county where the election is made He asked the members to consider the matter and decide fairly upon the merits of the case If he was not justly entitled to the seat he did not want it Pending the discussion, the House adjourned to one o'clock.

AFTERNOON

A message from the Senate, announcing the passage in that body of the joint resolution ratifying the amendment to the Constitution of the United States, abolishing slavery, and asking the concurrence of the House in the same Laid upon the table

A message was received from the State Treasurer in answer to the resolution of the House passed during the morning session, calling for a detailed statement of the condition of the military fund The Treasurer stated his ability to comply with the first part of the request, but he could not report relative to the nature of the service and vouchers therefor—the amounts having been paid upon orders from the Secretary of State.

THE CONTESTED SEAT

The House resumed the consideration of the case of Messrs Hogue and Gates.

Mr Hogue replied to the arguments of his opponent that Grant county had a right to vote in the election, must appear from the fact that the vacancy was created by the resignation of a representative who was elected by the county of Wasco, which at that time included the territory of Grant, and that, by the law organizing Grant county, such representative must continue to represent the territory originally within the boundaries of Wasco county until June 1866 As to the informality of the returns that was a matter decided by numerous precedents in this country to be insufficient to disfranchise a community, or to thwart the public will, when such will could be definitely ascertained It was inconsistent with the spirit of republican institutions Mr Gates had received a majority of 41 in Wasco county He had received 83 majority in Grant county—a clear majority over that given by Wasco, of 39 votes Nobody disputed these facts, hence he claimed the right to the seat

Mr Fay made a long speech claiming that on account of informalities in the returns, neither of the gentlemen was entitled to the seat, but favoring the claims of Mr Gates in preference to Mr Hogue

After a lengthy discussion participated in by Messrs Fay, Lane Lawson, Underwood, Bowlby, Thornton, Wakefield and others, a resolution to reject both the contestants proposed by Mr Lane, was voted down, and the resolution admitting Mr Hogue was adopted by a vote of 29 to 4 Messrs Beall, Cox, Fay and Lane voting in the negative

The Secretary of State administered the oath of office to Mr Hogue, and he took his seat as a member of the House.

MESSAGE FROM THE SENATE

A message was received from the Senate announcing the passage of a joint resolution in that body to adjourn till 9 o'clock A M on Friday next in order to observe Thanksgiving Day in accordance with the Proclamation of the President and the Governor

Another message was received from the Senate, announcing the concurrence of that body in the House joint resolution providing for the acceptance of five hundred copies of the Governor's Message and the documents accompanying it, from the State Printer

CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT

Mr Callison moved to reconsider the vote by which the resolution relative to the Constitutional Amendment was postponed till Friday next. He wished it acted upon to day so that we could have additional cause for thanksgiving

Mr Underwood favored the resolution because he could see no good reason for postponing it It should be passed now, so that other business can be attended to. Members have had time to think of it

Mr Thornton opposed it There were members who wished for time to consider it That they had not prepared themselves to vote upon the question was no reason why they should not now be allowed time to prepare.

At the instance of Mr Lane the motion was laid upon the table

BILLS AND RESOLUTIONS.

Mr Cartwright submitted a joint resolution for the appointment of a committee of three members of each branch of the Assembly, to investigate the causes of the delay in the public printing and empowering the committee to send for persons and papers. Adopted

Mr Wakefield gave notice that on Friday next he would introduce a bill for the registration and regulation of voters names in the State

The resolution requesting the Secretary of State to furnish each member of the House with a copy of the journals of the last Session, was so amended as to furnish each desk with a copy, the copies to be left on the desks on final adjournment

Mr Fay offered a resolution that after Saturday the 9th inst, no new bills be received in this branch of the Legislature

Mr Lawson opposed it because he thought it was an attempt to gag the legislation of the body

Mr Hogue was also opposed to the resolution There were some measures desired by his constituents of which he had received notice, but which could not be introduced by that time

On motion of Mr Parker, it was laid upon the table. Adjourned.

Meeting of the Common Council.—The regular weekly meeting of the Common Council was held at the usual hour last evening, Mayor Failing presiding. Present: Aldermen Holmes, Plummer, Rosenheim, Shattuck, Smith and Watkins.

The minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved.

A petition of the chief engineer for a lot for the Hook and Ladder company was referred to the committee.

A petition of Goldsmith Bros. and the assessment of the city assessor that the assessment of lots be laid; referred to the committee on ways and means.

A transfer of license to retail liquor at the Magnolia was granted Mr. Seller.

The committee on ways and means reported a reduction of the tax of Wm. Gray, which was adopted.

The committee reported an ordinance levying the taxes of 1866, as follows: For general municipal purposes for the fiscal year ending Dec. 31st, 1866, 5 mills; for the payment of indebtedness, 4 mills; and for the purposes of improvement of navigation in the Willamette, 1 mill, on the assessed valuation of real and personal property within the city, given at $3,751,675, less allowance for reductions. The report was adopted, and the ordinance was read a second time in the regular order.

The Committee to whom were referred the petitions asking for greater power from the Legislature in the matter of sewers submitted a correspondence with the City Attorney, which was read and ordered on file. The report of the Committee was adopted, and they were relieved from further consideration of the subject.

The Street Commissioner submitted a report setting forth that the sewers on Stark and Yamhill streets were not built in accordance with contract. That some distance of each the top plank, bound in three, spiked as provided. On motion to refer the matter to the committee on streets and public property.

Mr. W. said he did not deem it necessary to refer the matter, with the hope of accomplishing any good. The sewers constructed had been accepted by the Council, and paid for. If not done in accordance with contract, it would only appear that somebody had been derelict.

Mr. P. could not see how the matter was to be remedied. He thought, inasmuch as the work had been accepted, the officer who now reports a delinquency furnishes strong proof against himself of delinquency. He moved to place the report on file.

Mr. W. read section 101 of the Charter, which provides that the bids of any person for improvements who have been delinquent on former contracts, shall not be received.

Mr. H. favored the passage of the motion to refer, and the communication or report of the Commissioner on file, the Council might be doing the contractor injustice. The matter was referred to the committee on streets and property for investigation.

Bills authorized in payment of claims against the city: D. Monastes, on account of dredger; A. Cobel, on account of care of city; E. Scott, account of streets $1; on same account, $40; Harbaugh & Stitt $5 77; Wall Bros., rent of Council Chamber; B. W. Smith, $4 75; Jas. Bennett, repairing; W. Mc. Kean, cleaning cistern; $3. Other bills were referred to the appropriate committees.

An ordinance appropriating $100 for the temporary repair of streets passed the second reading.

An ordinance to prevent persons from carrying fire arms or weapons in a concealed manner within the city was passed and ordered published for ten days and approved by the mayor.

On motion of Mr. Plummer it was resolved that the Street Commissioner request property owners in the vicinity of Engine No. 2, to have their streets properly filled to allow the engine to reach Front street.

The Mayor submitted a petition, with the draft of a bill to be passed by the legislative assembly providing for laying out and widening of streets in the city of Portland, and appropriating money for that purpose.

Arrested.—On the 10th day of March last a man by the name of C. W. Jenks was arrested in this city for passing sixteen legal tender notes, of the denomination of $50 each, upon Messrs. Harker Bros. The notes were counterfeit. Jenks appeared to succeed so far in making his case out, as that he was not aware of the bills being counterfeit, by evidence of his former standing in the State of Illinois, and confounding the prosecution. The examination came off before Justice Gray. The complaint by the counsel for the prosecution was entertained and he was set at liberty. The name of Jenks was suppressed from the papers at the request of numerous citizens, from the same reason, and thus he was enabled to make himself appear the innocent party. His efforts did not fully blind the community, however, some of whom, since that time, have held the opinion that Jenks was a rascal, which opinion has been fully corroborated by recent events. It appears that at the time of Jenks' arrest, a man was here who went by the name of ——, but whose real name was Parks, who came with the two and came together on the steamer from the East, and were heavy dealers in bogus gold dust and counterfeit bills. The latter made an excuse for the heft of his trunk, when he left Umatilla, that he was a book peddler, and it was filled with books. The gray backs by the passage of the "queer" ... on their journey to Idaho, went in full swing upon the commission of crime. By secret working and shrewd management they obtained a fortune, and were about to return to the Atlantic States when, as we are informed by a gentleman who has just returned from Idaho, they were found hung, in the vicinity of Salmon Falls, by order of the vigilance committee. In July last, a man, well acquainted with both Jenks and Parks, having accompanied them to this city by steamer from this city to Idaho, being here at the time of the arrest in March, is familiar with their history. Some of the parties being followed by the committee, was occasioned by their passing counterfeit notes at Boise City. A brother of Jenks was taken, being in company with them at the time of their arrest, but he was acquitted, and is now at large. It is shown that they left for the States with money, a large portion of which was owing to the people in this City, among whom are mentioned M——, but it does not appear that the creditors have been paid. The events go to show a case of misplaced sympathy on the part of our citizens, and it is also evident that it is not the best in all cases to let every tub stand on its own bottom. Had not the private prosecution failed to move for a dismissal of the charge, and the defendant Jenks been allowed to go before the Circuit Court, he might now have been in prison, but probably roving the State of Oregon, which is more preferable than hanging in Idaho. Let law take its course in civilized society, and there will be less necessity, or requirement for committees in the mountains, where the ... convict scoundrels, the deeper dyed.

[DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.]

DATES TO DECEMBER 6.

Congressional. The Senate.

Washington, Dec. —The Senate met at noon, the President pro tem., Foster, in the chair.

A message from the House announcing its organization and requesting the appointment of a Committee to act with one of its appointment to wait upon the President for his message.

A message was also received from the House announcing the passage of the House joint resolution for a committee of fifteen on reconstruction.

Mr. Wade moved to take up the latter resolution.

Mr. Saulsbury moved to refer the question to the Committee on judiciary.

Johnson objected to the introduction of the resolution.

The resolution was then ordered to lie over.

Grimes offered a resolution for the appointment of a committee of two to act with the House in waiting upon the President.

Sherman introduced a bill for the survey and the sale of mineral lands in the United States.

Collin presented the credentials of Messrs. Alcorn and Sharkey, Senators elect from Mississippi, which were ordered to lie on the table for further action.

Foote offered a resolution from the Legislature of Vermont, in favor of equal rights in the reconstructed States.

The Senate, on motion of Sherman, took a recess till one o'clock.

On reassembling, Doolittle moved that as the committee of the House for waiting on the President was not yet ready, the recess be extended till 2 o'clock. Carried.

Comments on the Message.

Chicago, Dec. —The Washington special to the Tribune says the general comment is that the message will be tolerably good—better a good deal than they had reason to expect. Democrats make no special objection as yet. Unionists are cautious in expressing themselves except in general terms. Conspicuous Radicals, however, freely criticise it as assuming that the whole work of reorganization has been accomplished with a single exception, of passing upon the legality of Congressmen.

In the Senate, Sherman introduced a bill for the survey and sale of mineral lands. The bill leaves the price blank, but provides that actual occupants shall be allowed to purchase at minimum rates.

Stewart offered a bill defining the jurisdiction of Circuit Courts in California, Nevada, Washington Territory and Oregon.

The House elected Rev. Boynton, of Cincinnati, Chaplain.

A resolution declaring the sense of the House against the repudiation of the public debt, 162 against one.

Bills were offered in both Houses to extend suffrage in the District of Columbia.

Congress will adjourn over to Monday.

The North Carolina Legislature elected John Poole, of Bertie county, Senator for the short term.

The President having sustained General Wood, in his refusal to obey a writ of habeas corpus issued by Judge Busteed, of the United States Court, Southern District, Alabama, has adjourned his Court sine die.

Washington, Dec. 4th.—The following was introduced by Mr. Sumner, in the Senate to-day:

Resolved, That in order to provide proper guarantees for security in future, so that peace and prosperity shall surely prevail, and the plighted faith of the Nation be preserved, it is the duty of Congress to take care that no State declared to be in rebellion, shall be allowed to resume its relation to the Union till after satisfactory performance be given, upon several conditions, which conditions by precedent must be submitted to popular vote, and sanctioned by a majority of the people of each State respectively, as follows: Complete re-establishment of loyalty as shown by honest recognition of the Union, of the Republic and the duty of allegiance to it all times without equivocation of any kind. Complete suppression of all oligarchical pretensions and complete enfranchisement of all citizens, so that there shall be no denial of rights on account of color or race, but justice shall be equal before the law. Rejection of the rebel debt, and at the same time adopt in just proportion the National debt and national obligations to the Union soldiers with solemn pledges never to join in any measures direct or indirect, for their repudiation, or in any way tending to impair national credit. An organization or educational system for the equal benefit of all, without distinction of color or race, choice of citizens for office, whether state or national, of constant and undoubted loyalty, whose conduct and conversation shall give assurance of peace and reconciliation.

Resolved, that in order to preserve these essential safeguards, without which national security and national faith will be imperiled, States lately in rebellion cannot be precipitated to political independence, but they must wait until these conditions are in all respects fulfilled.

New York, Dec. 4.—The Commercial's special dispatch from Washington, December 4th, says: There is some talk of change of the presiding officer of the Senate in place of Senator Foster of Connecticut.

Southern members have given up hope of admission immediately, if at all. Most of them leave to-morrow for their homes.

The President's Message is lengthy and highly important. He takes a decided stand in reference to foreign affairs, and is almost sanguine in tone upon our claims for indemnity against England are to be sustained. European aggressions upon our continent are firmly protested against.

The Secretary of Treasury recommends the policy of judicious contraction, as means towards the return to a specie payment.

Raleigh, N. C., Dec. 4.—Hon. William A. Graham was elected United States Senator to-day for a long term, receiving one hundred and thirty eight out of one hundred and fifty four votes. Graham was in the Confederate Senate, and has not been pardoned.

Washington, Dec. 4.—Official intelligence received from the Alabama Legislature, informs us that they have ratified by an overwhelming vote, the Constitutional Amendment abolishing slavery.

Oakland, Ogn., Dec. 8.—On the 1st inst. a vessel was discovered on shore bottom up, about 12 miles north of Umpqua river, supposed to be the Lessie Wilde. No tidings of any who were on board.

PIANOS! PIANOS!!

EARNEST GABLER'S unsurpassed Piano Fortes, have acquired the greatest popularity, as being superior to all instruments of the most celebrated makers in the East, for sweetness and power, and unequaled elasticity of touch, durability and beauty of style.

L. T. SCHULTZ, former partner of H. Sinsheim, has received a number of these beautiful instruments which may be seen at SINSHEIM'S MUSIC STORE. Some of these Pianos have been sold in this city and give entire satisfaction. Call and examine them, and buy a good piano at a fair price.

GEN KILPATRICK AND C. C. BURR.—An Eastern paper gives the following incident, which occurred in a late debate in Jersey City:

In speaking of the doctrine of the "Copperhead" party, which professed to be Democratic and now claims to be the patriotic party of the country, Gen. Kilpatrick said by its direct action, it brought about the events which were made the pretext of the war; its leaders supported the rebellion as far as they dared, and some of the same men (more particularly those in New Jersey) were no better than traitors. In support of his assertion he said that, in a speech made at Newton, New Jersey, a few days ago, which had been approved by Rogers, the speaker had directly avowed secession sentiments and expressed his sympathy with treason; had charged that Federal soldiers had gone South to steal and rob, and had favored the taxation of Government bonds or the repudiation of the national debt. That speaker, Gen. Kilpatrick added, was on the platform before the audience. Turning, he pointed out C. Chauncey Burr, who sat near Rogers, and whose face was livid with anger and excitement. The General continued, naming Burr, and saying in his rapid and impressive manner that he did not hesitate to pronounce him a traitor to his country.

The scene was one of intense interest, and the audience was excited to the highest pitch of feeling. As the General confronted Burr, who glanced at him fiercely but did not move, a part of the audience made a demonstration of approval. A few hisses were heard among the opposition, but the applause soon rose above these, and became so general and enthusiastic that no other sounds could be distinguished.

When quiet was restored General Kilpatrick said that not only had Burr taken these positions, but he had, in referring to Lincoln as the person responsible for the debt, added, "And he sleeps in the grave." Burr had next alluded to some of Lincoln's prominent supporters and said of them, in a manner that was purely significant, "Great God, they are living to-day!"

General Kilpatrick continued (turning again and advancing to within two or three feet of the place where Burr sat), saying Burr thus approved the act of J. Wilkes Booth, the murderer of the President, and by fair inference advocated the right of assassinating the men who stood by Lincoln through the nation's perils. General Kilpatrick again pronounced the principles of Burr the principles of an enemy of his country. He said they must evoke the contempt and scorn, as well as the indignation of every loyal man. He added that what gave the speech of Burr its importance, was the fact that Burr, who had already spoken to the audience, and who in the State of New Jersey, was considered the best representative of Democratic principles—the "Little Giant" of Jersey Democracy, his friends called him—had risen in the meeting at the close of Burr's address, and had pronounced that address the best exposition of sound Democratic principles he had ever heard.

During the delivery of this part of the speech the excitement was great and increasing. The applause was vehement. At times the opposition crowd was disorderly, and there were hisses, howls and groans. Some of the disturbers cried "Put him out!" and others of the same class called for Burr.

General Kilpatrick was unmoved by these proceedings, and, without changing his manner and addressing his remarks to Burr as well as to the audience, that he had fought too many rebels at the front to fear any traitors here. The applause was tremendous.

FROM THE UPPER MISSOURI.—The St. Joseph Herald of October 24th says:

The stern wheel steamer Converse, the last one of the mountain boats on the Upper Missouri, arrived yesterday from Cow Island, after an absence of five months. On her trip up the Missouri, above Fort Union, she broke some of her machinery and was unable to reach Fort Benton, and discharged her cargo at Cow Island, one hundred miles this side of the fort. At the mouth of the Yellowstone was found an immense lot of goods of all kinds, the freight of several steamboats that were compelled to unload. The goods were unguarded and with no covering, and left to the safe keeping of the weather and the savages. The Converse arrived at Fort Union on the 17th of September, and found the fort evacuated by Uncle Sam's soldiers, they having been ordered to Fort Sully. Only a few traders were there, they having trading posts. The cargoes of seven boats are stored there, and will have to remain until Spring. Below Fort Rice the Converse was fired into by a party Indians, who were ambushed and waiting for her to pass. A passenger on the boat by the name of Lane was struck with a ball and slightly wounded.

Eighty miles below Fort Sully, General Sully and army were passed. They were swamped and waiting for the Indian Commission to arrive. The Indian Commission was met forty miles below, traveling overland. They abandoned the steamer Calypso at Yancton Agency, on account of the slow progress she made. The Commission will cost the Government a handsome sum, and they will fail to accomplish the object of their mission, as there are few hostile chiefs within seven hundred miles of Fort Sully.

The steamer Calypso was met eighty miles below Fort Sully, proceeding along slowly. She was drawing three feet of water and only had half her cargo on board, having been obliged to discharge the other half at Yancton Agency. An order was on board to the commanding officer at Fort Berthold to evacuate that post.

The Converse has had a severe trip, having encountered heavy winds and rains, with a bad river to navigate. She brought down seventy eight miners, and each one had a large buckskin bag full of the precious ore.

The steamer Majors was met on the 21st at Rock Bluffs; the Colorado at Nebraska City; the Lucy was met on the 22d at Rulo, the U. S. Grant at White Cloud, and the Denver at Amazonia.

The Converse has been chartered by the Pacific Railroad to transport ties from points on the river to Omaha.

GOVERNOR PIERPONT AND FREEMAN CLARK.—The following dispatch comes from Washington, dated October 24:

Governor Pierpont, of Virginia, having seen fit to publish a denial of the statement in these dispatches that he, last week, in the Treasury building, denounced the Government for expecting that the South would tamely submit to be called on to pay the public debt, and that he was, therefore, ordered out of the room by Comptroller Clark, stigmatizing the statement as a gross falsehood, and alleging that Clark procured its publication, Clark, to-day, in a note to your correspondent, says in answer to the denial:

"I state unqualifiedly that Governor Pierpont did express the sentiments imputed to him, not however, in the precise words as stated in the dispatch to which he alludes, but in more objectionable and offensive language, and I also affirm that I did direct him to leave the room.

(Signed) FREEMAN CLARK."

Clarke enclosed in proof of the statements the sworn affidavit to that effect of Charles D. Smith, a brother of James C. Smith, one of the Justices of the Supreme Court of the State of New York, who was present and heard the whole conversation. Governor Pierpont is getting decidedly the worst side of the question of veracity, as there is still another person who can affirm the truth of allegations which are already sustained by the statement of Clark, backed by the oath of an unimpeachable witness. Some of the Congressmen elect from Virginia are much exercised over their Governor's indecent speech, and which they fear may delay the admission of their delegation next session. The two Virginia Senators have called upon Clark to express their purposed dissent from the doctrines enunciated by Gov. Pierpont.

CHIVALRIC DUEL.—Colonel Charles Forsyth and Mr E. G. Hale, prominent members of the Mobile "chivalry," recently had a difficulty which resulted in a challenge. Everybody in Mobile knew when it was sent, and on the evening of Oct. 13, they were accordingly put under bonds of $500 each, by the authorities to keep the peace. What are one thousand dollars to chivalrous souls? The affair came off on the following morning at six, on the Magnolia race course. No one was hurt, and the seconds testify publicly to the gallantry of both parties. A correspondent of a Mobile paper says: "Double barreled shot guns loaded with buck shot, distance thirty paces, was the programme. With such implements and at such distance, the most ordinary hunter in the West would have said his prayers before the word 'fire' was pronounced. Not so with these knights, for I am told they were both perfectly [illegible]. As the card says, both parties stood gallantly. No doubt it was that saved them. One of them [illegible] after the fight, that he did not even hear his enemy's shot fly. Query: Did the shot fly? And query again: In which barrel was the shot and in which the powder? But, at all events allow me to recommend to honor gentlemen [illegible] shot guns loaded with buck shot at thirty paces as the safest and cheapest [illegible] for the preservation of delicate honor that has yet been discovered."

THE MISSISSIPPI SENATOR J. L. ALCORN.—Governor Sharkey, the Senator elect for the short term from Mississippi, is well known throughout the country, but his colleague, J. L. Alcorn, elected for the long term, has not been made so prominent by late events, and is not prominently known outside of his State. He has really never held any important office in either State or Federal Government, but has served several sessions in the Legislature. When the war began he was known as a strong Unionist. So positive was he in his views on this subject that when he finally submitted to the authority of the rebellion he did not obtain any important position, being retarded by the charge for which he had made as a Unionist. When, however, the work of reconstruction began he was called from his retirement and elected to the first Legislature of the reconstructed State Government. On the 24th of October he was chosen over Judge Jacob S. Yerger, the rebel General S. H. Gholson and others, for Senator in the United States Congress.

THE STANDARD AMERICAN BILLIARD TABLES!

AND COMBINATION CUSHIONS.

MESSRS. PHELAN & COLLENDER

WOULD RESPECTFULLY CALL THE ATTENtion of persons wanting Billiard Tables to the great superiority of the above tables, manufactured exclusively at their establishment.

At the Billiard Congress of 1863, composed of all the first class players of America, it was unanimously resolved that tables of our manufacture should be used at all matches for the Championship as the best and only reliable tables.

These Billiard Tables have received the unqualified approval of the best players and most competent judges, who have universally pronounced them unequaled for general excellence and durability.

Seven distinct patents for improvements in Billiard Tables have been granted to us by the United States Patent Office, and we have lately obtained a Patent from the French Government, for our improvement in Billiard Cushions.

We employ in the construction of our tables a variety of machines specially made for the purpose, by means of which we are enabled to insure a scientific and mechanical accuracy hitherto unknown in Billiard manufacture.

Having a long experience and thorough knowledge of all the appliances of Billiards, and constantly on hand a large stock of the best and most thoroughly seasoned materials, we are prepared to furnish everything required in the Billiard line with unprecedented dispatch.

The eminent French Billiard Player, M. Berger, has published the following opinion:

NEW YORK, 2d August, 1861.

"On the eve of leaving the United States, I am happy to declare to all amateurs of Billiards that, after a tour of eleven months through the principal cities, I have been enabled to judge in a satisfactory manner of the superiority of the Billiard Tables manufactured by Phelan & Collender. The system of manufacturing is so superior that I am happy to introduce their style of cushion into France. They have united to their manufacture of American Billiard Tables that of the French Tables of remarkable excellence and beauty. For these reasons, I am happy to make this declaration.

BERGER, CLAUDIUS,
Prof. of Billiards, Paris."

Parties ordering from us will find our prices as low as good work can possibly be made for. We sell first class articles at a fair price, and will not make an inferior article at any price.

Orders by mail carefully and promptly executed. Illustrated Catalogues and Price Lists sent by mail. The "BILLIARD CUE," a Journal published in the interest of Billiards and containing details of all novelties, a complete record of Billiard news and everything of interest to amateurs of Billiards, sent free on application.

M. E. HUGHES,
730 Montgomery St., San Francisco, Cal., is our only authorized Agent on the Pacific coast, to whom all orders should be addressed.

ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM!

The Remedy for Curing

CONSUMPTION, COUGHS, COLDS,

Asthma, Croup,

Diseases of the Throat, Bronchitis, Pains and Oppression of the Chest and Lungs, Difficult Breathing and all the Diseases of the Pulmonary Organs.

ITS ACTION IS EXPECTORANT, ALTERATIVE, SUDORIFIC, SEDATIVE, DIAPHORETIC AND DIURETIC, which renders it one of the most valuable remedies known for curing diseases of the lungs. It excites expectoration, and causes the lungs to throw off the phlegm or mucus; CHANGES THE SECRETIONS AND PURIFIES THE BLOOD, heals the irritated parts, gives strength to the digestive organs, brings the liver to its proper action, and imparts strength to the whole system. Such is the immediate and satisfactory effect that it is WARRANTED TO BREAK UP THE MOST DISTRESSING COUGH IN A FEW HOURS' TIME, if not of too long standing. IT IS WARRANTED to give entire satisfaction even in the MOST CONFIRMED CASES OF CONSUMPTION! IT IS WARRANTED NOT to produce costiveness (which is the case with most remedies) or affect the head, as it contains no Opium in any form. IT IS WARRANTED TO BE PERFECTLY HARMLESS to the most delicate child, although it is an active and powerful remedy for restoring the system. THERE IS NO REAL NECESSITY FOR SO MANY DEATHS BY CONSUMPTION when ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM will prevent it if only taken in time.

GENITAL DEBILITY, ETC.

THE ASTONISHING SUCCESS WHICH HAS AT tended this invaluable medicine renders it the most valuable ever discovered. No language can convey an adequate idea of the immediate and almost miraculous change which it occasions in the debilitated and shattered system. In fact, it stands unrivalled as a remedy for the permanent cure of the maladies above mentioned, and also

DIABETES, IMPOTENCY,
LOSS OF MUSCULAR ENERGY,
PHYSICAL PROSTRATION,
INDIGESTION,
SEMINAL WEAKNESS,
GLEET, FLUOR ALBUS,

And in every disease any way connected with the disorder or decay of the PROCREATIVE FUNCTIONS. Persons about to marry, if conscious of any weakness, should take the

CONSTITUTION WATER,

Whether broken down by excess, weak by nature, or impaired by sickness, the unstrung and relaxed organization is at once relieved, revivified and built up. Well may this celebrated medicine be called the

MEDICAL WONDER.

The stooping, trembling, victim of depression and debility becomes a new man; he stands erect, he moves with a firm step; his mind, which was previously sunk in gloom or an idiotic apathy, becomes bright and active, and he goes forth regenerated, conscious of new vigor.—

Mercurial Diseases.

Salivation, Feeling of Weariness, Rotting of Bones, Bad Complexion, Aches in Bones, Depressed Spirits.

Constitution Life Syrup purges the system entirely of all the evil effects of Mercury, removing the Bad Breath, and curing the Weak Joints and Rheumatic Pains which the use of Calomel is sure to produce. It hardens Spongy Gums and secures the teeth as firmly as ever.

Constitution Life Syrup

Eradicates, root and branch, all Eruptive Diseases of the Skin, like

Ulcers, Pimples, Blotches,

And all other difficulties of the kind, which so much disfigure the outward appearance of both males and females, and often making them a disgusting object to themselves and their friends.

Constitution Life Syrup

CURES ALL SWELLING OF THE GLANDS, either of the Face, Neck, or Female Breast.

As a general Blood-Purifying Agent, the Life Syrup stands unrivalled by any preparation in the world.

Constitution Life Syrup

Is the Poor Man's friend and the Rich Man's blessing. Buy it, take it, and be cured. It is universal in its effects.
